Complete the British Degree at BMS

An institution with growing reputation

After 36 years of my career at the Central Bank, I am pleased to provide BMS with strategic leadership moulding it into an institution with unparalleled reputation for quality learning and dissemination of knowledge.

BMS is entering its twelfth year of success in adopting a modern approach to education in association with the best of the British education system, while incorporating the flexibility of the module credit system leading to a British degree.

BMS's speciality is its focus on the choice of its courses with international recognition and the blended approach on the learning process by mixing traditional, resource based and student centred learning.

The most significant feature of these degree pathways is that the entire degree can be completed, as you may choose, in Sri Lanka or commence the programme in Sri Lanka and complete it in the UK or in another country such as Singapore or Malaysia.

We take learning to people rather than people to learning.
